FROSTY THE SNOWMAN

Writers Steve Nelson, Jack Rollins

Frosty the Snowman was a jolly, happy soul, With a corncob pipe and a button nose And two eyes made out of coal. Frosty the Snowman was a fairy tale they say, He was made of snow, but the children know How he came to life one day. There must have been some magic In that old silk hat they found, For when they put it on his head He began to dance around. Oh, Frosty the Snowman was alive as he could be; And the children say he could laugh and play Just the same as you and me. Thumpety thump, thump, thumpety thump, thump, Look at Frosty go; Thumpety thump, thump, thumpety thump, thump Over the hills of snow.
Oh, Frosty the Snowman knew the sun was hot that day, So he said, Let's run, and we'll have some fun Now before I melt away. Down to the village with a broomstick in his hand, Running here and there all around the square, Saying catch me if you can. He led them down the streets of town Right to the traffic cop, And he only paused a moment, when He heard him holler, Stop! So Frosty the Snowman had to hurry on his way; But he waved good-bye, saying, Don't you cry, I'll be back again someday. Thumpety thump, thump...
