Glad that we're through I keep telling myself
But this was a heartbreak affair
Now that you're gone I've got time on my hands
To sit around and think about you.

Wish it hadn't happened, wish it was a dream
But I sit here a crying and I know I'm not asleep
Glad that we're through I keep telling myself
But this was a heartbreak affair.

Wish it hadn't happened, wish it was a dream
But I sit here a crying and I know I'm not asleep
Glad that we're through I keep telling myself
But this was a heartbreak affair...
