Oh, she burnt the little roadside tavern down
(Oh yeah)
The only one for miles and miles around
I saw many hours of pleasure tumble down
When she burnt the little roadside tavern down

It was my home away from home
Those many nights of gettin' stoned're gone
This is what she had to say man you'd better stay away
Or I'll burn that little tavern down someday

Oh, she burnt the little roadside tavern
It was there I had my freedom all night long
But she'd fuss
And say I had done her wrong

She said, "Man you'll never learn
Just step back and watch it burn"
And now that little roadside tavern's gone
So she burnt the little roadside tavern
