"She Left Me Love"

She left me love enough to last a lifetime
If I live to be time's oldest man
So I have no reason to search for new love
She left me love enough for any man

My mind is filled with mem'ries, sweet and tender
My heart is filled with love, she left for me
Each thought of her just makes the love grow sweeter
She left me love to last eternally

I just close my eyes and she still holds me
In dreams she loves me just like she used to do
Then she wakes me with a tender kiss each morning
That lingers on my lips the whole day through

My mind is filled with mem'ries, sweet and tender
My heart is filled with love, she left for me
Each thought of her just makes the love grow sweeter
She left me love to last eternally
