Daylight won't find me out in public places nighttime I'll look for only friendly faces I know I must forget you and all the love we knew And somewhere in the night I'll find forgetfulness of you Somewhere in the night is where I'll find love waiting all alone just for me Darkness brings the lonely out in search of love they live without
But just like darkness finds the light I'll find love somewhere in the night
[guitar]
Mem'ries of love that's gone seem twice as strong
When the evening shadows fall and find me all alone So when the day starts making way for darkness to come down
Somewhere in the night among the lonely I'll be found Somewhere in the night...
Just like darkness finds the light I'll find love
somewhere in the night
