Watching my watch tick the time away
Watching through the window the skies turning grey My eyes get so lonesome at times I can't see these long lonely walls keep watching me Watching your pillow unused since you'd left Makes the pain sharpen that runs through my chest Watching my hands tremble just thinking of you Then my mind starts to wonderin' oh what will I do [steel]
Watching the shadows of evening come down then soon the darkness covers the mound Watch a dim light bulb out in the hall flicker its light through a crack in my wall Watching your pillow...
