Bet your head
I'll come back
To take what's mine
Back in black
Hunt you down
To the worst town

Hi do you remember me?
I was the killer next door
When we were kids
We were so innocent
So beautiful

Bet your head
I'll come back
To take what's mine
Back in black
Hunt you down
To the worst town

Love means murder
If you don't do exactly what I say

You promised to marry me
And now I'm here to bring your heart
To my house
And keep it under key

No one can stop me from loving you
Oooh Woah
Oooh Woah
My love for you is bombproof

My dear girl you signed a deal
With devil now it's time to pay
Take off your clothes
And lay down on the ground show me what you got

Don't get low put yourself together now
Hit me hard and kiss me like you never did

Get down
Keep dancing on the boulevard
Like a crazy bull
Crossing every heart in town

You promised to marry me
And now I'm here to bring your heart
To my house
And keep it under key

No one can stop me from loving you
Ooh Woah
Ooh Woah
My love for you is bombproof

No one can stop me from loving you
Ooh Woah
Ooh Woah
My love for you is bombproof

Dying Diva...
Get down...
Guitar!

No one can stop me from loving you
Ooh Woah
Ooh Woah
My love for you is bombproof

No one will stop me from loving you
Ooh Woah
Ooh Woah
My love for you is bombproof
