Ever so lost
I can't find my way
Been searching but I have never seen
A turning, a turning from deceit

Cause the child roses like
Try to reveal what I could feel
I can't understand myself... anymore
Cause Im still feeling lonely,
Feeling so unholy

Cause the child roses like
Try to reveal what I could feel
And this loneliness
It just won't leave me alone

I'm fooling somebody
A faithless path to roam
Deceiving to breathe this secretly
This silence, the silence I can't bear

Cos the child roses like
Try to reveal what I could feel
And this loneliness
It just won't leave me alone, ohh no
And this loneliness,
It just won't leave me alone, ohh no

A lady of war
A lady of war
