"Redemption"

I heard your complaint
No one wouldn't hear
You made it clear

I remember very well
Every second of every minute
I'm already an eroded rock

We are in recess
But for me it's labor day
Notes around me
Bring back every song we've played

Please do not ignore me
It's not time to disregard the facts

You live in me
I'm you
Hold back
You know it's true

We're in the last day
And there is no afterlife
There's no use to pray
And no need for goodbye

Spare me from your metaphysical bullshit
There's no eternity or no reason to be
This is all, we are all, and that's enough for me
