Break Down, the walls in your head, until you Break Down, not tears instead, you need a Break Down, on your page and pen stay to you to really hold a Break Down, on the stage

I'm talkin... ta ta tata ta
I'm talkin feelin' every single one of you in this room
I'm talkin I know and I feel I have my right to this mic Feel it, you feel it the dealer's deal has been sealed it's alright

The flow will keep comin (for real) it's alright
And see I'm not like every other motherfuck with a mic
I'm on my own (Doomtree) Feel like the... Feel like the words are comin' feel like the style is gettin' tight

See for awhile I been beside myself with I and me and me side-by-side
Say to spit it, I spit it, kill it with all of my heart now
The only way I know to keep away from the Break Down
