I'm trying not to slip been trying not to lose footing loose lands keeps that pressure on my kicks but when i fall i tend to land like a ton of bricks stand like a man made of concrete and sediment like fuck your skin nobody needs it thers bones muscle and blood whats realer than fat and tendons its raw no soft tissue to draw your eyes to it so far flesh aint the truest at all lets rip into it we all sick of the missed shots passed over like the last man picked no team so pissed off thats not honesty thats just soft curves got your world flipped got you makin mixtapes for girls and thats the skin again stretching itself so fluidly over these awkward ligaments
and i didnt shave today i probly wont tomorrow when its safe to say i'm never gonna shed these extra

[chorus]

yea so fuck it back to the wall crush it laugh at em all hush let em try to find the beauty in your face yea something more than us all hatin awh come on dust let em try to find the beauty in the bassline love it when the words dont change we dont sing thats why we fade away yea we do our own damn things we dont blink at what tomorrow might bring at all love it when love it when the words dont change
yea we do our own damn thing

in us we trust no rush for bucks no sweat just enough them words from love no hits i let the track stand like how it was written is how it hit me or road cycle kids with the grip the skid fixeex? that let it roll like whatever they kick that gingivitis them rappers got the itis catch me bumpin isis in a crisis stead of watchin yall countin lead sheep at the same time whats the science of that i know that it sweeps away the movement is at?
we in that coma capital spotless home team with hands steadily purexed but never quite clean bloody as hell rarely will i care
