Beautiful day, on a day like today
When you can't get away with the murderous
Little remains of the wide open plains
Where you hardly contained your deservedness

Hanging around like the question she found
To the answer expounding your consciousness
Beautiful way, how she tried to divide
Like an emperor tide and be conquerous

Hey, it's a beautiful ride
Hey, it's a colorful motion
Hey, you got nothing to hide
But you can't get caught with the notion

Meeting the match in a station of trains
On their way to the Nation of Animus
Is there a catch to control, down the hole, down the hatch
Where the rabbits are ravenous?

Setting a trap, unaware if you care
If she dares to ensnare for the hack of it
Minding the gap, are you glad
For the labyrinth moments you had keeping track of it?

Hey, it's a beautiful ride
Hey, it's a colorful motion
Hey, you got nothing to hide
But you can't get caught with the notion

Hey, it's a beautiful ride
Hey, it's a colorful motion
Hey, you got nothing to hide
But you can't get caught with the notion

Hey, it's a beautiful ride
Hey, it's a colorful motion
Hey, you got nothing to hide
But you can't get caught with the notion
