When I told you what you wanted to know
You said, "Take me to Ontario"
And when I showed you what you wanted to see You said, "The flower that you planted in me had gone dry, yeah"

Big birds flying overhead, who gives a shit?
Big birds flying overhead, who gives a shit?

When I showed you what I wanted to build
And all the enemies would never be killed
There'll be a saint living under the stairs
So we'll be free from all material cares

Black paint on the walls in summer, it's cool, yeah, it's cool
Black paint on the walls in summer, it's cool, yeah, it's cool

I wanna go, I wanna go to Ontario
I wanna go, I wanna go to Ontario

When I told you what I wanted to know
You said, "Take me to Ontario"
When I asked you, "Why Ontario?"
You said, "It sounds good on the radio"
Go!

I wanna go, I wanna go to Ontario
I wanna go, I wanna go to Ontario

Black birds flying overhead, waiting for somebody to die
Black birds flying overhead, waiting for somebody to
