Intro)

This is me the creator, introducing myself
To a hybrid breed
Born in the renaissance
Please have no offense
On my absence
I have my eyes on the Pain ye constantly felt

Haha, this is me, the spirit so unusual
I have the power to ride ahead of the spiritual
Against all the odds
Lets lay a foundation stone for your king
In the heaven who's there without a thrown

(VERSE 1)

Red denotes danger
Red denotes light
Red denotes anger
Red denotes life
Can zeitgeist save our souls O adiÃ³s amigos
We heading to comatose
Took a shower in the sea, yes it's a black sabbath
Prepare for the end time, an exodus in fact
After I Danced with devil
Dined with the God
For we are trapped in this world of middle earth, lord
Where the natures jokes are so sarcastic
Hacking all the hoax, bringing a change so drastic
Lets surprise everyone like a jack in the box
"commercialize lesbian sex till the wars in Iraq"
Lets believe in the youth say we must not
Lets us create our own history with our own thoughts
So pick up a spot and put up some rocks
Someone please play this at 100 thousand watts
Is it a calm less mirage, the world's goin down
The shops are closed, the lights are out
Everybody got a violent addiction to
The bleeding sexism's flamboyant crucifixion
Smoked some weed, board a night flight
So stoned, fellin' my heart is on the right side

Trips fooling me, it's like an anxiety attack
Turn the lights on in a way everything turns black
& kidnap who control on the nature with science
This modern world is threatening me - (lions)
Technological facts that make the knees shake
Can anybody, I mean anybody sell love on e-bay?
For our country Soldiers who died in the cold wars
But nobody is ready to die for my soldiers
Why is the truth always in code words
Who is responsible for nature's bloopers
To respond the deal, no rockerfeller or goldbergs
Built to kill, kill what kills. so what?
The hopes built by the Venus project
What about the teaching of the martyrs n the prophets

How am I suppose to take this verse so long
The moxie inside me is now long gone
Pray to this life in me to wake up
Hedionising in the dreams with a face fuck Ow
Peace out

(DEVIL'S VERSE)

Satan powered a gun, you are ordered to run
Welcome back everyone, are you desperate for fun
I'll sell you everything for free that you lust
Come hold my hand dipped in the Red blood

For I inspire the life
I inspire the soul
I inspire their wives
I inspire thy goals
Don't listen to anything else that deceives
Or believe the priests
I have no agnostics at least

(GOD'S VERSE)

Peeks up from the soul, you been trying to find
I'm the one who controls the whole mankind
What is this of prophecy of 2012
Believe me my children, I was building my stealtha
But guess thy ate the forbidden fruit again
Under his command you act like a hooligan

For I the LORD that do not change (words form Malachi
3:6-7)

It's a death trap, I'ma take this motherfkin
Antichrist's life back
Fight back, with a will, where mic's at
It's like that, when the world survives on the price tag
Slave him in the vault n rape his bitch
As a revenge for what he has done to my kids

Who practice homicide with homosexual masturbation
It's the age of vice, salvation's saturation
Trapped is this middle earth you might be
Self flagellating whips for this deity inside me
