Words and music by Bob Dylan

I've got my back to the sun 'cause the light is too intense I can see what everybody in the world is up against Can't turn back, you can't come back, sometimes we push too far One day you'll open up your eyes and you'll see where you are

Sugar baby get on down the road, you ain't got no
brains nohow
You went years without me, might as well keep goin'
now

Some of these bootleggers, they make pretty good stuff
Plenty of places to hide things here if you want to hide them bad enough I'm staying with Aunt Sally, but you know she not really my aunt Some of these memories, you can learn to live with and some of'em you can't

Sugar baby get on down the line, you ain't got no
brains nohow

The ladies down in Darktown, they're doin' the Darktown strut Y'always got to be prepared, but you never know for what There ain't no limit to the amount of trouble women bring Love is pleasing, love is teasing, love not an evil thing

Sugar baby get on down the road, you ain't got no
brains nohow
You went years without me, might as well keep goin'

Every moment of existence seems like some dirty trick Happiness can come suddenly and leave just as quick Any minute of the day, the bubble can burst Try to make things better for someone sometimes you just end up makin' it thousand times worse

Sugar baby get on down the road, you ain't got no
brains nohow
You went years without me, might as well keep goin'

Your charms have broken many a heart and mine is surely one You got a way of tearin' the world apart, love, see what you've done
Just as sure as we're livin', just as sure as you're born Look up, look up, seek your Maker, 'fore Gabriel blows his horn

Sugar baby, get on down the line, you ain't got no sense nohow
You went years without me, might as well keep goin'
