East Clubbers - Walk Alone

Released: 2004

I walk alone

Tonight I'm so happy with this day tonight don't wanna' leave so far away I'm not afraid whatever has to come from the my first time just to the end of life

I walk alone
right from the start
I found a way to believe in our life
My future is coming in series of lights
My disillusions are so far behind

I walk alone walk to the sky there is no need to come back and to hide
I feel born to hold in the world in my arms that's how how I feel anywhere anytime train *6
I walk alone

I walk alone
Bass *8

I walk alone
right from the start
I found a way to believe in our life
My future is coming in series of lights
My disillusions are so far behind

I walk alone
walk to the sky
there is no need to come back and to hide
I feel born to hold in the world in my arms
that's how how I feel anywhere anytime
I walk alone

I walk alone
