I had a lot of trouble finding directions
It made no sense
And everybody wouldn't stop with the questions
Like I was condemned
I had my doubts before if I should carry on
Or just leave it alone
My mind was all twisted
I knew I was missing someone
Who could show me the way, way, way
And then you came along
And turned my world around
Around for good
I was seeking survival
I found it in you

[Chorus:]
Without you
I'm nothing but a broken bell
Without you
My sound will never sing again
Te quiero, quiero, mi amor
Because of you I'm hurt no more
And just so you get it and never forget it
I'm just one kiss away

I was stranded in desperation
Trapped in the dark
And the only way to find my redemption
Was through your heart
Through your heart I feel alive
You lift me up to the surface
You, you, you should me the way
Yeah, you should me the way
And then you came along
Around for good
I was seeking survival
I found it in you

[Chorus x2]

Just one kiss away [x3]
I'm just one kiss away
