"Fifty Kilowatt Tree"

The power is out from a terrible storm but my lights still shine Santa's spinning and Rudolph's grinning Listen to my generator whine my neighbors put up a pretty good front but I know they envy me I see them peepin' through a crack in their living room blinds at my fifty kilowatt tree

Fifty kw tree - I'm proud of my display fifty kw tree - up past new year's day fifty kw tree - I've got a lovely lawn fifty kw tree - you better not walk on there's a star in the East but it's only me with my fifty kilowatt tree

Shepherds quake at a neon angel strobe lights in the stable wise men worship at a motor driven manger and it's all been wired for cable My neighbors call me ostentatious
but I know they envy me lighting up my yard like downtown Las Vegas It's my fifty kilowatt tree

Fifty kw tree - it's a giant spruce fifty kw tree - draws a lot of juice fifty kw tree - I've got a lovely lawn

I'm stopping traffic, I'm boss of the block you better park your car, get out and walk

fifty kw tree - reindeer pull my sleigh fifty kw tree - I've got a lovely lawn
