"After the Day"

A bit of a joke went out pallid as ghosts in a parka in August.

And

The warm water of full baths

And we touch

And we touch and we leave it to, leave it to, I wave it to...

Leave it too late

After teh day I've had.

Boo-hoo, I'm crying

You said I calmed you down

It's been a long day, I say

After teh day,

Lie on me and I'll lie on you

We'll fool around

"After the day I've had..."

Another, a 'Not Her', tucks her knees under

With a harried 'hullo' in the hallow of late hours.

Boo-hoo, I'm crying

You said I calmed you down

It's been a long day, I say

After teh day,

Lie on me and I'll lie on you

We'll fool around

Wet lips maw, once in once more.

Hello wand welcome "Goodbye, nice knowing you"

Hurry up one step and over teh next

After the day I've had.

Boo-hoo, I'm crying

You said I calmed you down

It's been a long day, I say

After teh day,

Lie on me and I'll lie on you

We'll fool around

"After the day I've had..."
