Your noddy-body rinses
it's ruddy cloudy skin
Stingy, unsettled, so,
summer sets in on the city,
Under umbrellas
And waiting at counters
And the sun slips low down
Disappears the day after Locked in the zoo, like Animals braying low groans and deeper
Half-spit half-thoughts, half the wit.
Tighten up the barricades and cool up
Here is something here is. Something is Far from something, it has or it has not
She is either or niether
Taking a deep breath
As up we go out
With the tidy
Dolling out of bells tolling
Ellie, I'm sorry..

I...

I only meant to kiss you

Lying awake

On the edge of the bed,

The sun sits low

Down,

Ellie,

I'm sorry.
