To my soldiers and my thugs prepare for war the time has once again been struck capture the clones they have done struck the nations the demons have surrounded the silent blu killa It's up to us to declare war Ghetto cowboy has been dominating so this time buss till death grab the Leatherface defend the nations assault the assasins this is how e-bone hustle

Eazy Bone it's up to you to defend the nations (give the troops the mines, bombs, motars and all the art of war artillery

chorus

Better bring yo weapons before steppin to the e-bone so die

Die cowboy better get yo ass up off the ground cause I got my rounds and I'm ready for war this is how e-bone hustle save the nations to get my ratings bone thugs takin over this muthafucka mo thugs droppin and poppin that blood from the salary cap we takin over anything on da map now ya'll runnin stunnin gunnin, bombing and where's my money I'm so quick to attack let yourself go surrenda now know the results end it later makin the law strap Layzie thuggin by nature that's the mature attitude popping them tags ain't too rude never had a war like this one so i'm thinking end it late postpone my date my dead troops and thugs I'ma see'em at the crossroads spit ya knowledge cause they know you don't wanna get shut down approved the grooved moved from tha first set to the next set bleeding is the suspecis way of knowing the achievement of killas and drug dillas centuries of the thugs and hustlers back to the wardown the war has been going for quite a while now blow an average set of cowboys maximize the opponent you trying to attack and grab drag him across the field of formulated souls pull his weapon depending on his courage spending money on wars is not a good solution so I just shoot till I'm out of rounds and reload and drop the next nigga that try to test me put him to rest so quick prepare without being hit calling for backup we out numbered it's time for e-bone and silent blu to lay it down the war is over even though I done lost all my lethal warriors me and silent blu stayed in the struggle to put in work got the job done now they remember bone as being no pretenda

Better bring yo weapons before steppin to the e-bone so die

Eazy Bone that nigga is a no pretenda nigga he will not be so quick to surrenda nigga
