The sun dawn light
And I hear it sayin'
That our day is done
And this love is breaking

We both know you wanna go
Your heart's already gone
It's gonna hurt but you make it worse
When you keep hangin' on

Just be a man about it
Don't try to dance around it
Just have the decency to say to me
That you got other plans
Say you can live without me
Go on forget about me
Walk out that door, boy, if you think you can
Just be a man
Just be a man about it

Why do people change?
Why do hearts break open?
And the truth we know
Have to go unspoken

Look me in the eye and make me cry a thousand tears
Let me hear it straight from you then you can disappear

And just be a man about it
Don't try to dance around it
Just have the decency to say to me
That you got other plans
Say you can live without me
go on forget about me
Walk out that door, boy, if you think you can
Just be a man
Just be a man about it

Oh, goodbye, good luck
With your new life, your new love

Get it over with, can take no more of this
Why can't you just be strong and just be a man about it
Don't try to dance around it
Just have the decency to say to me
That you got other plans
Say you can live without me
go on forget about me
Walk out that door, boy, if you think you can
Just be a man

Just be a man
