Struck by the moon,
A risin' too soon.
I feel a pain deep inside me.
Cold northern winds
A fist in my chin.
Makin' me wild for you, baby.

What can I do?
To get back to you.
I'm feelin desperate and lonely.
The city's a river
Of cold misery.
Makin' me wild for you, baby.

I'm down on my knees.
Hear me cry for you, baby?
Cold misery!
I would die for you, baby.
I pray you will see
These tears I cry.

Nights I can't sleep.
My tears are cheap.
I'm losin' hold of my senses.
I can't contain
All of this pain.
And it's makin' me wild for you, baby.

I'm down on my knees.
Hear me cry for you, baby?
Cold misery!
I would die for you, baby.
I pray you will see
These tears I cry.
