(VERSE 1)
I guess he's just a guy / I guess he's just a friend
And now the way I'm feel in' doesn't match your heart again
I guess I'm second rate / I guess I'm not cha type
So tell me why you call for me when your alone at night

(PRECHORUS)
I know ya' better / Girl get it together
Come and see whatcha missed in me
Cause you know I'm a fighter / I can take you higher
Takin' bullets on a battlefield

(CHORUS)
Holdin' back, my attack, but your gonna fail
Never wait, gunnin straight for your heart babe
I know that we, meant to be, can't you see if your
Guard comes down / I'm gonna crash on you
The walls are crumblin', crumblin' down
I'm gonna crash on you
The walls are crumblin', crumblin' down
I'm gonna crash on you
The walls are crumblin', crumblin' down
When your Guard comes downÂ...
I'm gonna crash on you

(VERSE 2)
If he's so perfect then why are you on the phone?
Telling' me he's got you cry in in ya bed alone
The tears are comin' strong / but baby let it go
Just kiss the water baby won't cha let your feelings flow

(PRECHORUS)
I know ya' better / Girl get it together
Come and see whatcha missed in me
Cause you know I'm a fighter / I can take you higher
Takin' bullets on a battlefield

Never wait, gunnin straight for your heart babe

I know that we, meant to be, can't you see if your
Guard comes down / I'm gonna crash on you
The walls are crumblin', crumblin' down
