Have you heard of the saying
For those who were playing
You don't know what you got till its gone

Well that was my calling
I knew what I was falling into something that would be so wrong

But I got hold of myself
And changed for the better
I can't get you out of my mind
Cause something inside made me realize you were fine

Chorus:
Each time when we're alone
I guess I didn't know
How far we were apart
Should have spoken to my heart
I guess I didn't know
That each time you go away, I cry
I can't take all these goodbyes

I know from this feeling
Deep inside there's a healing
I know that i'm in control

Everyday I am yearning
This love I feel burning
Burning right through my soul

So let's make a start
Of something that cannot be broken
The more its so strong

Treat this love as a child
Then grow it into something worth while

Chorus

Deep love's so deep

Deep love's so deep, yea
I can't take all these goodbyes

Faithfully, I will be
You will see, please believe me
I can't take all these goodbyes

Chorus

All the time we were alone
Guess I should have really known
Baby you have always been mine
All the time we were alone
Guess I should have really known
Baby you have always been mine
