Drawing eyes
from across the room
they're staring out of the paper but you are withdrawn
from the faces looking on
are you a spy
or an artist drawing lines is there a hidden camera in your pen cos i'm having trouble avoiding the questions in your eyes if this is your disguise please stop trying to draw information out of me

wide-open like
the curtains to a play
but i cannot stay
in the audience
feeling so withdrawn
to applaud for curtain call

do you carry magnets
in your pockets
cos i'm having trouble
resisting your gravity
when you are near please stop drawing this out using your secret agent
on me
