As I look upon my life
There's a memory of a child
That I knew so long ago
In a distant point in time

We were once so young and free
That's where I still long to be
In the warmness of a love
That was yours and was mine

Sometimes when alone
I still think of you

Memories Of Another Time
When we were young
And the world was ours
Memories Of Another Time
We stood as one
And we never faltered

Running free under the sun
Our days had just begun
Carefree glances instead of words
Not a worry in the world

Hand in hand
We marched through time
From our childhood and beyond
Every time I close my eyes
You are all that I see

Sometimes when alone
I still think of you

Memories Of Another Time
When we were young
And the world was ours
Memories Of Another Time
We stood as one
And we never faltered

One step that's wrong can throw
Your world into the unknown
One step that's wrong can throw
Your world into the darkness
One voice unheard
Turns to silence in the void
One wheel that turns is heard
In the calm before the storm

Sometimes when alone
I still think of you

Memories Of Another Time
When we were young
And the world was ours
Memories Of Another Time
We stood as one
