Once we begin to see
Oh my oh, oh my oh
Eyes wide and everything
Oh my oh, oh my oh

Oh it's so hard to breathe
Oh my oh, oh my oh
On the road away we breathe
Oh my oh, oh my oh

Once we begin to see
Oh my oh, oh my oh
Summer burn all the curses clean
Oh my oh, oh my oh

Oh it's so hard to breathe
Oh my oh, oh my oh
On the road away we breathe
Oh my oh, oh my oh

While I wandered, they came upon
Watch the expands, sleeping silent
In the dark where, you were hiding
Humble question, wrapped in ribbon
We took to tumbling
We took to tumbling
We took to tumbling
We took to tumbling

We held fast, we held strong
We held on.
We held fast, we held strong
We held on.
