Six Bottles went down the drain
One hours a waste of time
I'd ask if you feel the same
Still pushing the chance to try
Your Presence is cool and chill
Long Hair that goes side to side
You speak and make time stand still
And each time you walk right on by

Like Violence you had me forever and after
Like Violence you killed me forever and after

Cant count all the eyes that stare
Cant count all the things they see
She kills with no life to spare
Just Victims left to bleed
One drink and the pain goes down
Soft Shells Lay by her feet
Lay soft as you slowly drown
Lay still as you fall to sleep

Like Violence you had me forever and after
Like Violence you killed me forever and after

Like Violence u had me forever and after Like violence u killed me forever and after like violence u had me forever and after(repeat many times)

Like violence you had me forever and after
Like violence you killed me forever and after (repeat chorus as many times as needed)
