Eternally
I'm here, alone
Without you being alive
But still I know
That it will be alright

I believe that you will be free
From magical chains, that run in your veins

You took all my pain
That was for me and I am to blame
That you are here and you are there
I don't know where
No matter how long it takes
I'll be with you, until you wake
And I will wait here eternally
I will wait eternally...

I know, it's hard
To find me in the dark
But please, find your strength
Or it will be in vain
I believe that you can be free
From magical chains, that poison your veins
I'm here, I wait for your eyes to open.
Oh please, return back to me...

You took all my pain
That was for me and I am to blame
That you are here and you are there
I don't know where
No matter how long it takes,
My love, I'll be here, until you wake
And I will wait here eternally
I will wait eternally

Remember the time, when I saw your eyes
I fell deep in love, forgetting my thoughts
And if you will leave, there's nothing for me
Left in this world, oh darling, oh please
Without you I'm blind, 'coz you are my eyes

Without you I'm gone, 'coz you are my soul
Without you it's hard, 'coz you are my heart
So come back to me, awake from that dream
So I will wait!

Can't hold my tears
They're falling on your hands

But now you open your eyes
And got back to life
You came back to me,
Forever we'll be,
We'll be together

You took all my pain
That was for me, and I am to blame
That you were here and you were there
I don't know where
No matter how long it takes
I'll be with you, until you wake
I will wait here eternally
I will wait for eternity
I will wait eternally...
