feat. Maffew Ragazino

Here we go again
H Frizzy stay fizzy
Another one, fuck around

You superficial, my crew will hit you with cruiser missiles
I heard your album, that shit is filled up with stupid issues
They blew the whistle tryina take me out the game fam
But that was nothing, I just switched the fucking game plan
Hold the applause 'cause I don't even need it
I'm overly conceited, I'll never be defeated
You rappers get to lead it, please believe it
The point is I'm the pyramids in Egypt
It said it's boo, baby, I'm the best ambassador
I'll take you to the future like the flux capacitor
Yes, I'm tracking fresh and I dress spectacular
My stamina will damage you, go and get your camera
I'm colder than the middle of February in Canada
Mark it in your calendar, do we have a challenger?
I could turn the microphone into a 40 caliber
Bust a couple shots to make you fall over the canister

Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
Raise the altitude, we making power moves
Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
It's either fly or die, you're gonna have to chose

Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
Raise the altitude, we making power moves
Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
It's either fly or die, you're gonna have to chose

The beats give me words, what they say it's from the inside
The streets give me love and the pen helped me take flight
I draw plans and diagrams to success

But I don't know if my coordinates are right 'cause I ain't hit yet
No, I ain't down with any blood or crypts set
But what I speak get your chick wet, this white help me get fresh
From head to toe smelling like code of Armani
I need none of you fake ass rappers to stand by me
Atrevete, a meterte con nosotros
You be face to face comiendo un 38 como,
You a clown, my man, and you ain't worth shit
Less than half of a gram, so scram
Before you end up in a jam like strawberries I got a mean left hook but I settle 'em up with the flurries
Hurry, hurry, this the main attraction
Sahdeeq and Eddie B, H Fraud, get 'em packed
And I'm feeling powerful, blow the horns to get here
Let the angels bring me in, I'm back to bring that gritty in

Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
Raise the altitude, we making power moves
Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
It's either fly or die, you're gonna have to chose

Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
Raise the altitude, we making power moves
Born to win, go win, we don't know how to lose
It's either fly or die, you're gonna have to chose

Fly or die, mirror, mirror on the wall, how fly am I?
As fly as ever be, we're flying mileage into trillions
Infinity and way beyond, fast than the speed of life Keys open doors and you know currency's the key to life
A alike, B alike, real niggas see eye to eye
24/7, 365, money on my mind
Toxic waste, mix carbon monoxide with cyanide 80 puff in oxygen and turn the fire extra high Boom, Hiroshima, a bomb
Crush it with the black and all the number 9 jay's on Dirty bastard like ace on, ghost face, , Gotta love to hate those people now go and get your hate on
Rare jims, he was like many color, black fist
Martin, Malcolm, Mandela, there is not a man better
Then RAGAZINO, sayonara, long gone, farewell, c notes
