It's a shame when you find, freedom and emptiness go hand in hand.
Once there was a time when everything in life was at my command.
But now I find, my only life is leaving me. No one here believes in me.
They're leaving me behind.
Now I find, where my life is leading me. It kicked me down, mistreated me. Deceived me from behind.
Value's aren't spoken, put to rest, lay crying on the ground.
When your dreams are broken faith will disappear
without a sound
But now I find, my only life is leaving me. No one here
believes in me.
They're leaving me behind.
Now I find where my life is leading me. It kicked me down, mistreated me.
Deceived me from behind.
I wonder why
My heart should die.
I wonder why
Our hearts should die.
To be taken by surprise
Right before my eyes
Now I find, my only life is leaving me. No one here believes in me.
They're leaving me behind.
Now I find, where my life is leading me. It's kicked me
down mistreated me.
Deceived me from behind.
I wonder why
my heart should die.
I wonder why
our hearts should die.
