Who'd you say is you?
Where'd you say you hide your proof?
You're swollen like a lexicon
If you hurry we'll be home real soon

If you meet me in the morning
Gonna make my day
Well the sky will fall and the planets swoon
Feel like tomorrow coming up too soon

Gonna bend and shake it loose
Use whatever gets you through
Swollen like a lexicon
If you hurry we'll be home real soon

I got, happy memories I remember
Home spun remedies for stormy weather
Juggling scissors in the afternoon
We're picking up signs from across the room, yeah

I got, happy memories I remember
Home spun remedies for stormy weather
Juggling scissors in the afternoon
Picking up signs from across the room
Yeah, we're picking up signs from across the room
If you hurry we'll be home real soon

Yeah, I got, happy memories I remember
Home spun remedies for stormy weather
Juggling scissors in the afternoon
Picking up signs from across the room

I got happy memories
Happy memories
Happy memories
Happy memories

If you live your life like a castaway
In the hold neatly tucked away
If you live your life like a castaway
In the hold neatly tucked away

If you live your life like a castaway
In the hold neatly tucked away
If you live your life like a castaway
In the hold neatly tucked away
