(Jerry Lynn Williams)

I sat down to say it

The words wouldn't come

I just couldn't play it

And it tore me all apart

The bell I tried to ring it

The words wouldn't come

I just couldn't sing it

And I used to know this song by heart

Chorus

I sued to sing this song to you

For days and days

In so many different manners

In so many different ways

I used to think this dream we had

Could never come apart

And I used to know this song by heart

Repeat Chorus

So when I sat down to say it

The words wouldn't come

I just couldn't play it

And it tore me all apart

The bell I tried to ring it

The words wouldn't come

I just couldn't sing it

And I used to know this song by heart
