"Amerika's Delight"

It's the greed for the green, the rude and obscene
Possessed and annoyed, dense and employed
It's the hate and the crime and the suicide
Power and lust, in God we trust
It's the sex and the lies, disdain and the cries
Insane in the brain, cancer disguised
It's the race for the rat, anthrax attacked
East vs. West it'll never rest until..

Friday night: Amerika's delight
The party's just begun and it's out of sight.

Point the finger and blame, get a login name
Imagination dead; computer fed
It's calculation derived, light deprived
Freedom obsessed, getting more for less
It's fear of death and hatred of life
Run from love and let beauty die
Poison schools, factory for tools
Be yourselves but be the same
Masochistic nation without relaxation
So god-damn pressed for time to get to..

Friday night: Amerika's delight
The party's just begun and it's out of sight.
And I think tonight I'll join in Amerika's delight
'Cause everyone's invited it'll be alright.
