"Into The Night"

Visit "Into The Night" on MotoLyrics.com

Empty day with sickening veils of cold colorless clouds
This dimension melts away in the eyes of a million suns
All my love and all my hate to this thought does not equate
So I'll spill my rage in my golden cage and let it all fade
Into the night

All the while single minded sorcerer of time
Labors hard and labors long and feels there's no escape
Bears the weight, suffers sleep, emotions locked away
Searching for the crystal sea, waits for his need to fade
Into the night

Contemplation, hesitation, all said but nothing done
Some they will, some they won't, some don't have a choice
Hypnotized, paralyzed, disguising their disguise
Passionate, infinite, we all fade
Into the night
