It took a long time but now I'm fine
I was able to clear my mind
I opened my eye and looked inside
And the deeper I go the more I find

I let myself pass away
And I wouldn't want to live any other way
I'm watching my life as it were a play
With a newly written scene every single day

OM MANI PADME HUM

There's nothing I want, there's nothing I need
There is wonder in all that I see
There's an inner light deep within me
And if I let it shine I will always be free

With a smile I found eternity
I find answers with such simplicity
You'll be standing next to me but that's not where I'll be
I'm sitting with the universe and it's laughing with me
