Ohh, it feels..if this feel
'cause my man my..imagine you're healing my life

Dreaming of better days, smoking my pain away flying through shades a gray, it feels just like a rainy day mine is the down pulse, braced off I find bars drops it the crown thugs, spread it the word and is movement like we have found God, this music shit that we're doing is like we found R's this the description through niggas praying some wishes my folks raised in the south full lost, feeling the legend and couldn't step out their house, I can't imagine I couldn't fed em, they chock hold the devil got em paper when their actions, we had to .. when I was young and no money for darely need just bread the milk when we hit the store, just typical flag male, born no this poverty while only out was..a lottery, is like a.. they wanna sold bring that, killing and.. so many when this crown head,

Am I dreaming?
Am I dreaming, am I awake
Am I dreaming?
it's getting hard and tell real all fake
Am I dreaming? am I awake?
Am I dreaming? it's getting hard.

Smoky windows, rainy nights, I seat and wonder will I ever seat them lights stroben when they flicker in the camera flash, all we jerm for the..but it never last, fell and smoking I don't ever ash like fash and no speeding I don't ever crash just spreading heavy gas, accelerating for the future for my present past caught and rolling the darkness, need the Joker mask over the dash, harder the glass the passenger didn't know that the impact for me was casual, I'm a radical never took and some better cool this shuttle shit is cool but this music for me come natural,

fresh off the avenues for the revenue, don't know the schedule, this is all I ever knew being B CNB love from string the bell you dream of getting out the player part you never tell

Am I dreaming?
Am I dreaming, am I awake
Am I dreaming?
it's getting hard and tell real all fake
Am I dreaming? am I awake?
Am I dreaming? it's getting hard.

Ohh, it feels..if this feel
'cause my man my..imagine you're healing my life
