Who keep turnin out the lights, they say I'm out of sight they telling me I'm groovy, bout this coolest summer nights and I was getting high when I wrote this, mind out of focused, lines that I spoke light, lines that I coach it so, blowy bitch get the party going, it could be our little secret girl that's hardly hawing she jumping off that molly and we hardly rolling she get the telling me, she normally don't get this open, oh before I knew she took the whole thing down got back to the party pull me up dog brown, breaking out of pound lot of L's to pass round, we got a sound gotta turn the shit down,
'cause he the base now, he the air like a plane drop, nigga's falling off like titties gotta tic-tac bank stop, sure for this low for bread niggas I'm living off this music is super head nigga

Hook:

I'm up at the night, counting every star, higher than the height, wishing I was far but all of my people, but all of my people I'm up every night, counting every star, higher than the height, wishing we were on
they are never comin' back.

I'm stayin up every night, every night 'cause we got me higher than the kay I miss the alfa tag, can you please pass the bag are you missin all my laugh and your bitch in my hair, and I don't really care, now I never did put the quarter to the head light, mister wash and ten yeah I'm g the only track, faded off the yack red cops sipping, city of my head, rockin every jet, I do this for the people, up every night, loud than the eagle, tryin to stay legal in the old school whip, with a new school chick, bumping old school big singing, I love it when you call me big papi no dig it, drink so ugly, but my smoke so pretty said the dum so good tell your bitch to get busy, you know I gotta do it for my people in my city

Hook:

I'm up at the night, counting every star,
higher than the height, wishing I was far
but all of my people, but all of my people I'm up every night, counting every star,
they are never comin' back.

Leave the double come..somebody..dreaming so afded I was there at the stars.. but I know, but I know that if I go I ain't never coming back just like I'm wishing on a star chillin with my people and I'm wishing we were..

[Hook:]

No I ain't never comin' back
No I ain't never comin' back
No, no, no.
