It's hard to get a hold of a dream while you're sinning
So I'm fading... so much pain, I'm feeling
Bad emotions from nightmares, I'm always the villain
I can't get a grip, still letting go
Heard a scream and ..the money no
That's why I tell it to you all I can't breath
So much weight on my shoulders that I feed
I agree the things that I need I need if you're free Confined to my thoughts, my thoughts can't think,
can't blink for a second
Revolving like loaded, ain't no other direction
Fame is what's next for you! Don't trip!
Niggas make more money when they step!
Take a.. put 'em in a casket
Burn the shit, no berry in a...
Shoot first, ten question you can ask it
One time, while... enact me
Man, I'm gone, I'm gone, and I ain't coming back!
All this money confronted, we need double that Double stack pills dope for the chills Dope dope on a table, coke, coke by the...
For the girls who are claiming they want you
Cheap dressed like Louis Vuitton heels
Opened wounds, you feel it all here
Empty glass seeing it all build
From the ground up, get from around us
..city,.. them fliers, nigga..
Yeah, that's word to my gang
Word to my niggas, word, word on my name
I burn niggas flames, freeze niggas ice, melt niggas chains
..the heat, leave nigga stink!

Life, liberty and the pursuit of our faded dreams
Cause ain't here in this world
... is the price we gotta pay
And the life we gotta live
Forgive me now, and...

All my life I have been searching for the sun
I see him, face the black, I gotta grind in my vision

My future foresees an empty gun, no bullets
Had my name so I pull it, so I pull it, pull it, pull it
I woke up and reincoronate me
Love the night, I dreamed I lost my life here
Love your enemies, friends will fear me when you fight fair
And I.. who I am, I... a sinner..
They say go to church, cause I'm hell bound
That's possible nigga, I'm.. pray!
I rose from that concrete, black pedals under that light
Where me and God meet from the sky
Look in my eyes, you see the misery
Paining you and me the same, see what you did to me!
Alright! Expressing all lyrically, many nights fighting with demons I lost a few battles
In the land of the sheep and the brown wolf travel
Paranoid watching my own shadow, so who to trust?
I caught myself the biggest rush
But it's sad that it's me crying
In my dreams I was me dying
No exception, my mirror reflection perception is what you perceive!
Fuck the world, I wanna be me
And fuck you for not let me see
Fuck him for not letting me dream
And fuck her for not letting me be me!
Now I'm twenty years plus and my thoughts I can't neglect them
Defense mechanism fighting the...
But somehow I got away!
