Dirty Cash echoes

Dirty Cash echoes

Yeah uhh

[singers] Uhhh! Blue Angels Blue Angels Blue Angels!

Yo it's the ghetto diplo' bridgin like the Tri Boro

Victory is endless cause we all want a hero

Yo yo yo

Blazing Saddles so stop horsing around

From sunup to sundown it's the world renowned

It's hard to be real when them cats are make believe

If you can't feel me, then get up and leave

Stop it please come run wit deez

Cause I'm automated life flyin, Fate is on her knees

Locate the object, pinpoint my movin target

Pray for them, and bless em, like Sister Margaret

Got more alumni than the grad school of Harvard

Beat Street the movie was my all time favorite

So can you stand the smell of a black powder

Burnin rubber, break you off somethin proper

My B.I. is 700, horsepower

Love it or not, I'm the man of the hour, yeah

[singers]

Just when you thought my shine was burnin out

Them cats were down and out, in the heat of the night

You gotta believe in me, and I'll believe in you

There ain't no problems baby we can't get through

Uhhh! Blue Angels, Blue Angels, Blue Angels!

Yo she was hot to death, like the story Macbeth

Yo.. yo, yo, yo

When your marked for death it's a matter of life or death

I'ma cherish and nourish every single breath

When there's no one left, I'ma carry your footprints step by step, walkin through the, twentieth century, eyes on me

When the dogs start barkin you must set them free

Go in-Between the Sheets just like the Isley's

Choose my women wisely, Charlie's Angels got my back

I'ma kill em precisely, indirectly as if I was Bosley, bout to get rowdy
Be a cold day in Hell before I let you come and get me
So pray to Mother Mary, you think this is easy?
So stop actin frowsy, that's the one-fifty Holler if you hear me make your move if you ready

Dirty Cash, Navy Seals, reppin through your city, what?
Just when you thought my shine was burnin out
Them cats were down and out, in the heat of the night
Uhhh! Blue Angels, Blue Angels, Blue Angels!
There ain't no problems baby we can't get through

You gotta believe in me, and I'll believe in you
Jump up and spread then take off them threads
Yo.. yeah, yo, yo
Hey yo the way I feel now you cats can drop dead
You heard what I said, don't be misled
Run like I'm a caca, act like a bobaka
Navy Seals what? Running over chickenheads
Tomorrow never dies when she reveals her eyes
Keep your eyes on the prize, for Pras is the prize
My ears shoot the street, just to take out the impostor
Tough guys get penalized, cut down to size
It's the one that be witchu that be the true spies
Never say never when we can make it together
ReFugees are tougher than ever, what?

Just when you thought my shine was burnin out
Them cats were down and out, in the heat of the night
There ain't no problems baby we can't get through
You gotta believe in me, and I'll believe in you
Uhhh! Blue Angels, Blue Angels, Blue Angels!

Just when you thought my shine was burnin out
Them cats were down and out, in the heat of the night
You gotta believe in me, and I'll believe in you
There ain't no problems baby we can't get through
Uhhh! Blue Angels, Blue Angels, Blue Angels
