Somewhere - somewhere round the corner Somewhere-ere did he go - somewhere round the corner

One day you'll meet that person and you'll know, I mean they don't come up to you and say I am the person, but you'll know because you've seen that face and heard that laugh and been lost in those eyes somewhere (somewhere), somewhere (somewhere)

They're just around the corner, but if you break into a run every time you get to a corner you won't find them because they're not there yet, they're somewhere (somewhere)

The first time you get that feeling it's like being spiked, 'cause you don't really know what's going on and I was eighteen at the time so I really didn't know what was happening. Anyway, I saw him and I just thought, ahh, if he doesn't kiss me I'll die.
(Oh yeah, what you leaving me) So I followed him into the men's room and he stared at me and I stared at him and we go for dinner and then we go for it, full on room service love, we're talking swoon, croon, moon in June, we're talking Mills and Boon man, we're talking love (love, lo-ove) love (love, lo-ove) love (love, lo-ove)

Somewhere round the corner, somewhere-ere did he go Somewhere round the corner, oh how will I know

He wasn't from here, he was from somewhere (somewhere) and he went back there and I died and he came back and I was reborn - oh God I loved him, I love him. So it's still love and everything's going and everything's flowing and he calls me up and he says my sister's coming. So I show her a good time, I mean she wasn't that groovy or anything right, but at the end of the weekend we go to my parents house for dinner, and the family's there and she gets out the family snaps - like you do, and everyone's looking, you know not really looking, and she passes them round, and she shows a pictur
