"Everything For A Second"

Visit "Everything For A Second" on MotoLyrics.com

If you knew
I would give everything for a second just with you
I'm so into
Holding and keeping you near is my truth
I want to give you all
That I can ever give to someone

I need nothing
The only thing I need in the world, is you
Divine "divina"
I'd trade my self
To turn my dreams into something real
I'm so stunned
That I wish and want the whole wide world for you

If you knew
I would give everything for a second just with you
I don't have much
But the least I have I'd trade it all for you

I need nothing, the only thing I need in this world is you
