

by Cat Power
"Song To Bobby"

Visit "Song To Bobby" on MotoLyrics.com

I wanna tell you
I've always wanted to tell you
What I never had the chance to say
What I feel in my heart from the beginning to my time today

I was fifteen, sixteen maybe
In the park I was waving my arms
You were there I could swear
And you sang the song that I was screaming
I wanted to

Another time was in South Carolina
It's always been the third encore
And this wind came blowin' in
Can you tell me who were you singing for?
Oh my God, can you tell me who you were singin' to?

Phone call from in New York city office
You were supposedly asking to see me
Oh how I wanted to tell you
That I was only just 400 miles away
Who could believe that you were calling?
I was in deceit, I was 400 miles behind

Backstage pass in my hand
Givin' you my heart was my plan
I wish I could tell you
My chance
In the middle of the stadium in Paris, France
Can I finally tell you
Can I finally tell you
To be my man
April, Paris, can I see you?
Can you please be my man?

Visit by Cat Power page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.