There's a person that I'd like to be, Anne Marie
I can glimpse him when you're next to me, Anne Marie
There is music that no one can hear, Anne Marie
Yet it's audible when you are near

Anne Marie, Anne Marie, what am I to do?
You are married to someone else
Yet every waking hour, I think of you
Oh, listen to me Anne Marie

Anne Marie, Anne Marie, nothing much is new I've a history of wanting what I cannot have
This time it is you
Don't listen to me, Anne Marie

Anne Marie, there's a person that I'd like to be, Anne Marie
I can glimpse him when you're next to me, Anne Marie
There is music that no one can hear, Anne Marie
Yet it's audible when you are near

Oh Anne Marie, this world's an unfamiliar place I see
When you're with me, when you're with me
I hear strange music in undiscovered keys
When you're with me, when you're with me

Anne Marie, Anne Marie, it's time to walk away
I have never been noble
But then maybe being noble feels this way
When you're next to me, Anne Marie

Anne Marie, and though it's time
I can't believe that I'm saying goodbye
Anne Marie, why?
