Lying is killing the good things in me
Ask me what the time is baby, ask me honey
My eyes shift and slide
Sure there are reasons for acting like this

But reasons are kill, kill, killing everything we do
Who said we'd be happy the more that we knew?
Oh don't come a calling with answer me eyes
All you'll get my baby are blueberry pies

But your being lovely and your being good
Only depresses me, knowing how oddly I'm behaving Hello stranger, the stranger I've become, I'm an air raid
Leaving both us orphans and four fifths afraid

So if I come begging with take me back eyes
All you have to tell me
All you have to tell me
Are blueberry, blueberry pies
