Say, what you doin' sleepin'?
Hey, half the day is gone, get a move on

Life's a miracle
Let me tell you why? If you look above you
There are no more stars like this one in the sky

Life's a miracle
We gotta make the most of the passing moment
Gotta do our best, there'll be time enough to rest
Gotta do our best, there'll be time enough to rest

Tell someone you love them
There's always a way
And if the dead could speak
I know what they would say to you and me
Don't waste another day

Show someone you love them
Don't be scared to care
And if they fall into your arms
You'll be surprised to find
The weight that you can bear, yeah, because

Life's a miracle
We gotta do our best before it's time to rest

Life's a miracle
It's a summer's day, it's a passing moment
Enjoy the sky, be a brilliant butterfly

Tell someone you love them
There's always a way
And if the dead could speak
I know what they would say to you and me
Don't waste another day, hey

Show someone you love them
Don't be scared to care
And if they fall into your arms
You'll be surprised to find
The weight that you can bear, yeah, because

Life's a miracle
Life's a miracle
Life's a miracle
