If you're looking for Atlantis
You should cast your eye on me, put your two and two together
Don't you know who built Atlantis
Then returned it to the sea, don't you know who owns the weather?
(Rain or shine)

Sure is good to seek a challenge Sure is fine to set your sights, sure is foolish to be blinded
There are legions out there churching
Searching for the holy grail, isn't one of them can find it
(All this time)

You should be loving someone
And you know who it must be
'Cause you'll never find Atlantis
'Til you make that someone me

You should be loving someone
And you know who it must be
'Cause you'll never find Atlantis
'Til you make that someone me

Say you do find your volcano and the darn thing is still hot
Lesson one, child don't waste it
Lesson two, the world's your cherry, but tomorrow, maybe not
Lesson three, come on and taste it
(All this time)

You should be loving someone
And you know who it must be
'Cause you'll never find Atlantis
'Til you make that someone me

You should be loving someone
And you know who it must be
'Cause you'll never find Atlantis

'Til you make that someone me

You should be loving someone
And you know who it must be
'Cause you'll never find Atlantis
'Til you make that someone me

You should be loving someone
And you know who it must be
'Cause you'll never find Atlantis
And I know 'til you make that someone me

'Til you make that someone me, yeah, yeah
