It's amazing
how you make your face just like a wall how you take your heart and turn it off how I turn my head and lose it all

It's unnerving how just one move puts me by myself there you go just trusting someone else now I know I put us both through hell

I'm not saying
there wasn't nothing wrong I just didn't think you'd ever get tired of me I'm not saying
we ever had the right to hold on I just didn't wanna let it get away from me

But if that's how it's gonna leave straight out from underneath then we'll see whos sorry now If that's how its gonna stand, when you know you've been depending on the one you're leaving now the one you're leaving out

It's aggravating how you threw me on and you tore me out how your good intentions turn to doubt the way you needed time to sort it out

Tell me is that how it's going to end when you know you've been depending on the one you're leaving now and the one you're leaving out
