The house of the wicked
The ghosts of the sickened
Their stories told, but you donâ€™t believe them
Thereâ€™s no way out
No way out alive
A home your own
Fight to survive

Silence and darkness overwhelms your soul
Fear and paranoia taking its toll Thereâ€™s just a strobe of light flashing from the outside
Your heart starts to race
Blood pressure elevates
The door slammed to shut
Now you know youâ€™re shit out of luck

The house of the wicked
The ghosts of the sickened
Their stories told, but you didnâ€™t believe them
Thereâ€™s no way out
No way out alive
A home your own where yaâ€™ FIGHT TO SURVIVE

Shiver and stare cause thereâ€™s something beside you
Stunned and paralyzed thereâ€™s nothing you can do
Suddenly, thereâ€™s a crash to your left
Nervous and eerie youâ€™re feeling youâ€™re sick

The house of the wicked
The ghosts of the sickened
Their stories told, but you didnâ€™t believe them
Thereâ€™s no way out
No way out alive
A home your own where yaâ€™ FIGHT TO SURVIVE

We get into your veins

Crawl into your brain
Enslave from the inside
All against your will

A strife situation
Soon to be part of a paranormal realization
You were laughing before, but now the games have begun
Soon you will be a part,
JUST LIKE ALL OF US!!!

The house of the wicked
The ghosts of the sickened
Their stories told, but you didn't believe them
There's no way out
No way out alive
A home your own where ya FIGHT TO SURVIVE

FIGHT TO SURVIVE!!!!

AAAAAH!!!

FIGHT TO SURVIVE!!!!
